The CORE

Fines Result As Men Drive Over Firehose Here

Victor Vanoni and Joe Andrade, of North Richmond, were fined $5 each on the charge of driving over a fire hose when they appeared before Police Judge C. A. Odell. The offense occurred during the fire at the Lambrecht coal yards several weeks ago, but as only the license numbers of the cars were obtained at the time, apprehension of the men was delayed. Judge Odell warned the two men that a recurrence of the offense would carry a jail sentence.

HOW MONEY GROWS

It is really wonderful how interest, added to regular deposits even though they are small, counts up. The attractive interest now paid by Building and Loan Associations, which are under state supervision and as strong and safe as anything can be, offers unusual opportunity to those who want to get ahead. ## Richmond Held Best Location In The Bay Region For Industry

175 ACRE TRACT WOULD BE SITE OF HUGE DISTRIBUTING PLANT; WOULD EMPLOY 300

If the proposed agreement is ratified by the City Council the Petroleum Securities Company, the controlling factor in the Pan-American Oil Company, a Doheny corporation, will put a distributing plant in the city of Richmond that will cost $2,000,000, will beautify the property it proposes to acquire, and make it an important industry in this city.

DOHENY MAN TELLS FACTS
This information was brought out at an adjourned meeting of the council last evening, at which the entire time was devoted to a discussion of the proposed agreement. Frank R. Seaver, personal representative of E. L. Doheny and in charge of the plant locations for the company was present, and gave the council much valuable information as to what his company proposed to do.

PROPOSED AGREEMENT TOLD
Many questions were asked Seaver by the members of the council, as this was the first time the agreement had been in tangible shape and the council really knew what the new oil company was asking.

Seaver was frank in answering questions, stating if his company came to this city, it wanted to make itself popular, and wanted citizens to know every detail concerning the proposed agreement which was a three-cornered one with the Parr Terminal Corporation, the City of Richmond and the Petroleum Securities Company as the interested parties.

RICHMOND BEST SITE
Seaver said he had been considering three locations on San Francisco bay, and in this connection paid Richmond a very high compliment, when he said that he considered this city had the finest industrial sites of any place he had ever visited.

"I have built plants for our company from Portland, Maine," said Seaver, "down in South America as far as Argentina, and all through Mexico, and I want to say frankly there is no better location for industries and especially oil plants than you have here. At the present time most of our shipping is done from Los Angeles, but we are now expanding, and the second place to be developed is on San Francisco bay, and we have decided we want to locate at Richmond, if you will permit us."

WILL TAKE OVER DREDGING
The matter of dredging that portion of the harbor so that large tankers drawing over 28 feet of water, could enter, was brought up, and the cost was discussed. Seaver told the council, if the city did not have the money to do the necessary work, his company would do it and take it out of the lease money.

After much discussion, it was decided that Seaver would make a visit to the property with the members of the council, explain every detail to them of what his company proposed to do, so that there could not be any doubt as to the good faith of the Petroleum Securities Company.

ACTION ON MATTER MONDAY
Finally it was decided to take the matter up for further consideration at the meeting of the council next Monday night. During the day members of the council had been furnished with copies of the proposed lease by City Attorney T. M. Carlson, who had put in the entire night before with stenographers in San Francisco, so that they would have time to peruse the document before last night's meeting.

When the meeting was first called to order Mayor Chandler said that Fred Parr would explain to the council the proposed lease with the Petroleum Securities Company.

175 ACRES DESIRED
Parr said it was the intention of the company to acquire 175 acres of land near Point Potrero, and lease from the Parr Terminal Company, two and a half acres (Continued on Page 3)

ANNEXATION OF NEVADA IS URGED

Stating that he believed Nevada hindered the development of California, Stephen Bannison, state real estate commissioner, well known in Richmond, yesterday suggested annexation of that state to California.

"Nevada, in my personal view," said Bannison, "stands as a barrier to California. Our splendid arteries of highways reach to the borders of her sand and mud. I would like to see overtures made to annex Nevada to California. Our private capital and credit and the magic of our name would transform those barren wastes into cultivated fields, and our highways would extend another 500 miles eastward into the very treasure vaults of Utah.

"Nevada's population would become rich and famous overnight. It would be a real estate transaction to fire the imagination, and would prove beneficial to buyer, seller and agent."

Following the meeting a banquet was served by the Brentwood merchants. The next meeting will be held at the call of the chair.

4 Weeks Suffice To End Romance Of Local Couple

MARTINEZ, Oct. 26.—Four weeks have sufficed to blast the marital life of Mrs. Jonnie Hepler McGuffin and Isaac McGuffin of Richmond, according to a divorce complaint, Mrs. McGuffin filed here today in which she asked the court to permit her to resume her former name, Hepler.

Mrs. McGuffin charges that her husband has a fiery and an ungovernable temper and declares that he exhibited it even while they were on their honeymoon to Long Beach following their marriage, September 28. On the slightest pretext, she avers, McGuffin flies into a rage and upbraids her. During her four weeks residence with McGuffin she discovered, she says, that he is of jealous disposition and she cites in her complaint unjust accusations she says McGuffin made against her.

The suit was filed through Attorney Will Robinson. 260 persons are reported to have been killed when a passenger train plunged over a precipice between Sarajevo and Mostar, Yugo-Slavia.

Divorces For C. C. Increase By 11 Percent

Divorces in Contra Costa are on the increase, according to figures of the estate bureau of vital statistics, which show a gain of 11 percent last year over the previous year.

STATE INCREASE 13.6
The increase for the state was 13.6 per cent. Los Angeles led with 4635 divorces during the period, representing an increase of 25 per cent over the previous year. San Francisco followed close second with 2337 divorces, indicating an increase of 22 per cent.

Proximity of Contra Costa county to the metropolitan area is given as one of the reasons for the increase.

120 IN COUNTY
The total number granted in Contra Costa county was 120, as opposed to 116 in the preceding twelve months, according to the state figures.

California wives are more prone to seek legal freedom from matrimonial ties that bind them, than men, it was revealed. Three women file action for divorce to every one filed by men, he asserted.

GETS RIDE IN THE NEW FORD

(By Universal Service)
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 25.—Henry Ford today presented to Sir Phillip Sassoon, under-secretary of state for aeronautics for the British Government, the coveted honor of the A. R. I. N. E.—A ride in a new Ford.

While Detroiters have nothing more than sore necks, caused by trying to find it when some one yells "New Ford" Sir Sassoon arrived in town at 9 a. m., and an hour later was bounding over the roads in one of the new flyers with Henry himself as pilot.

An audible wish to see the car expressed by Sassoon upon his arrival at the Ford airport was overheard by Ford, and he arranged the ride immediately. Sassoon Camilla the field as one stop in a series of calls at airplane plants to study American methods of manufacture.

GOLD STAR MOTHERS

In Philadelphia an organization of gold star mothers has just been formed.

They are parents who lost their children not in war, but through the tragedy of accidents on the streets.

This pitiful organization should wake the nation to the need of acting sensibly to stop the tremendous slaughter of innocents that now stains our records with blood.

During the first half of this year 515 persons were killed in New York city alone as a result of motor car accidents.

Nearly half of these were children.

Children who are forced to play in the streets if they are to get the benefit of open air and sunshine.

Children who are so intent upon the exquisite pleasure of their activities that they have small thought for the danger that speeds upon them.

Children who have been denied the full right to live.

The New York Automobile Club has done good work in preventing the accident list from mounting to even higher levels.

But the real need is for a nation-wide movement to eradicate the peril.

Such a movement means the building of parks and playgrounds accessible to every child, without danger.

It means a new system of traffic roadways, such as elevated streets for express traffic.

It means a new deal in traffic rules and traffic laws.

A national conference on every phase of this vital subject should be called as soon as possible.

An armistice ought to be declared in the present relentless warfare against the lives of American children.

The old-fashioned boy who used to come to town on Saturday night playing the mouth organ came in for a lot of kidding, but think of how much worse it might have been if the saxophone had been popular in those days.

It may have been noted and it is an encouraging thing, that intelligent men of mature years concede that the world is getting better.—Toledo Blade.

Several persons now cherishing the presidential bee will find later on that by way of reward they have been stung.—Detroit Free Press.

The only thing all Americans agree on is that somebody else should go back to the farm.—Buffalo News.

Remember the old days when the silk stocking vote could only be found in the aristocratic wards?

Vigorous Health

What do you know about your body? Are you really acquainted with yourself? Do you know what the body is made of? Do you know how it works? Do you know what governs it? Do you know what is good for it and what is bad for it? I presume that you know something about your business, what ever it may be, or you would soon be out of a job, but do you know anything about the business of living? Those of you who own homes know that you must keep the roof repaired and the wood-work painted or deterioration will result, but do you know anything about protecting your body, which is your real home, from wasting away? If you have a car, you know that it requires a certain grade of oil and gas, but do you know what kind of fuel your body requires?

Most people are willing to put some time and effort on studying the needs of their business, their home or their car, and they are willing to pay for this information, but the majority utterly disregard their own bodies. They think they are automatic and will run smoothly without any care or attention. They think they can have health for nothing. This is all wrong. It is up to you to find out the laws which govern your body and then to put them into practice and pay for the resulting health with honest effort.

Is it advisable to eat immediately after taking a bath, and how long should one wait after eating?

G. F. There is no objection to eating immediately after a bath, but one should not bathe immediately after eating. It is well to allow one hour after a meal before taking a bath. While on the subject of baths I might call your attention to the fact that all hot baths should be followed by a brief application of cold water.

I am a young girl of 18 and have pyelitis. Have had this for two years and have been careful of my diet, but I still have pains. Please advise. MISS C. D.

A mere correction of the diet is seldom sufficient for such a condition, as the special cleansing, required, necessitates fasting. The usual treatment by natural methods for pyelitis includes a fast for up to one week with daily enemas, followed by the milk diet together with alternate hot and cold sitz baths, sun baths, walking, deep breathing and plenty of sleep. More than one fast may be required, allowing time between for the regaining of weight.

Are melons classed as a sweet or acid fruit? Can they be combined with starches? FRANCIS R. Melons are classed as a sweet fruit, and for this reason they can be used with starches. However, the melon has other peculiarities which make it well to eat it alone. An excellent meal can be made from any kind of melon. While it is classed as a sweet fruit, the melon has many of the advantages of the acid fruit, especially as regards alkalizing the system.

OILCLOTH RAINCOATS

Ordinary kitchen oilcloth is being used to fashion attractive novelties for fall. Many of the screen stars are sponsoring this fad.

Gertrude Olmsted has chosen a raincoat of dark red oilcloth with tailored collar and cuffs and large buttons.

Dorothy Sebastian includes in her wardrobe a sports suit of French flannel in beige interwoven with oval medallions of dark brown oilcloth.

Renee Adoree achieves a chic Parisian effect by wearing a hat of pale blue oilcloth with a five-piece crown and turned-up brim and a flat ornament of reptile skin.

Oilcloth hats are effective with a sports costume, rain or shine.

BILLIANT THOUGHTS COME THROUGH THE NOSE

When God created man and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, it was understood that nostrils were given him to supply his own body with oxygen. After the nostrils, like every other organ faculty, develop with age.

The nose in this illustration has inherited from his active ancestors a large nose, and yet because of failure to breathe properly, nature has almost closed his nostrils.

How a man breathes is an indication of how he thinks. Failure to breathe properly affects both mind and body. When you see an individual with a large nose and small, half-closed nostrils, you may know that he is lacking energy, force, power and enthusiasm because these qualities are generated only with oxygen.

Throughout all nature the breath is life. Deep breathing brings health and power. Those who only half breathe only half live.

If the individual with small nostrils will practice faithfully for one short month he will be convinced that he can make full breathing a habit and become a

Says the MAN

Dear Patricia Lee—

I suppose I am to blame for my unhappy home life, to a great extent. I have always had a quick temper. And lately my business has been going pretty badly and my nerves seem to be on edge. It seems that all through the day I must keep my temper under perfect control, must be polite, and almost flattering to people for business reasons. Then when I get home at night something seems to snap and before I realize it my wife and I are in the midst of a hot quarrel. I have three babies and my wife does her own housework, so of course, she, too, is tired and irritable. This doesn't help matters, and things seem to be getting worse all the time instead of better. In fact we have hardly spoken a pleasant word to each other in more than a month. We have been married six years.

Don't you know, Bruce, that there is nothing more tiring, more exhausting, than a fit of temper; that you are actually doing yourself bodily harm when you give way to such a tantrum? It works havoc with your already overwrought nerves, deadens the brain and is a mighty bad habit to get into. Constant bickering and quarreling will break up any home, if you can be polite and flattering to women across your counter all day, you can at least be courteous to your wife. If you can't be courteous, you can keep quiet. There never was a one-sided quarrel, you know, and if you'll only practice a little self-control your whole outlook on life will change—and I feel sure your wife will take note and follow your good example.

With the turn of the season, however, green has lost little of its favor for we find a steady demand for serpent green, Greta and Carrara green.

Blue, too, is winning its way to the front ranks with Napoleon and navy in the lead.

Next to browns in popularity, we have, just as we should suspect, the reds, especially the luscious wine tone which Patou sponsored. This range takes on more color until it recalls the grapes on the vine, and is aptly known as Malaga, and with even more of a purplish tinge becomes Pompeii.

Richmond Held Best Location

 of land adjoining the present wharf shed of the city. The company proposes to construct a pier 100 feet wide and 600 feet in length, that would accommodate the loading and unloading of tankers, and construct on the hills storage tanks. The company is willing to lease the two and a half acres of land above mentioned for a period of ten years and pay a monthly rental of $1000. The total life of the lease would be fifty years.

TO BENEFIT OF ALL: PARR

"My feeling," said Parr, "is that the proposed agreement covers an understanding that would work to the benefit of all parties concerned, with the possible exception of the location of the pier, and dredging. These matters can be worked out when we get additional information from City Engineer Hoffman as to the cost, which he will be able to supply the council in a few days."

WOULD STIR INDUSTRY

"The location of this plant at Richmond, in my opinion would mean a great deal to the city. It would stimulate activity here, would make non-productive land productive, make increased taxable wealth, increase our population, and add greatly to the tonnage that would pass through Richmond harbor."

3 SITES CONSIDERED

Fred R. Seaver, the plant location man of the corporation, and the personal representative of E. L. Doherty then took the floor and told the council the company had made a survey of San Francisco bay, and had come to the conclusion that Richmond had a site that suited their purposes better than any other. "We have been considering three sites," said Seaver, "because we intend to locate somewhere on the bay, but we want to come to Richmond."

EMPLOY 300 PEOPLE

"Our business would be export and local, and the company would construct a distributing plant here that would cost $2,000,000 and employ possibly about 300 people. All of our products would come here in tankers in bulk, and it is our intention besides the storage tanks and distributing station to erect a factory for the manufacture of cans, barrels and boxes."

WOULD BEAUTIFY SITE

"The small piece of land that we desire to lease from the city, would be the front door to our plant and it would be our intention to make it as attractive as possible. It would contain a very attractive fire proof office building, and other small buildings. The balance of the land would be planted to shrubbery and lawns. Some question has been raised about the cost of dredging, but if the city has not the money to do the work at the present time our company will do it, and

LLOYD HUGHES STEALS BRIDE AT RICHMOND

A well-balanced cast, headed by one of the screen's most striking personalities, brilliance of direction and wealth of story, setting and atmosphere combine to make "The Stolen Bride," the present feature at the California Theatre one of the outstanding pictures of many months.

Introducing gorgeous Billie Dove to the screen as a star in her own right, this First National picture is ideal as a vehicle for the beautiful actress, and her dramatic and moving performance more than confirms the judgment of the producer in advancing her cinematic position. In every scene of the picture, Miss Dove's personality impresses itself forcefully upon the audience and she demonstrates that she is not only one of the most beautiful but one of the leading actresses of the screen.

If Skin Breaks Out And Itches Apply Sulphur

Just the moment you apply Menthol Sulphur to an itching, burning or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation, made into a pleasant cold cream, gives such a quick relief, even to fiery eczema, that nothing has ever been found to take its place.

Because of its germ-destroying properties, it quickly subdues the itching, cools the irritation and heals the eczema right up, leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or blemishes.

You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows. You can get a little jar of Rowles' Menthol Sulphur at any drug store.

Steals Bride

LLOYD HUGHES who has the leading role opposite Billie Dove in "THE STOLEN BRIDE," now being screened at the California Theatre.

LON CHANEY IN LATEST ROLE AT CALIFORNIA

The tinsel and glamor of a circus and the sinister shadows of the underworld—these are two extremes in Lon Chaney's latest and most startling contribution to the drama of the screen.

"The Unknown," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's newest Chaney vehicle which is now playing at the Richmond Theatre, is a thriller, a mystery and a wonderfully sweet human love story, all in one.

Chaney plays an armless side-show freak, using his feet as his hands in all the ways the human hands can be used, a thing in itself that took months of practice. He shows knives, first rifles and does other tricks before an audience in his "act" and in his private life, eats, drinks, smokes, and even plays with his feet.

The story is a grim mystery tale, through which, like a golden thread, runs a delicate romance and a remarkable story of sacrifice. Chaney plays an underworld leader, masquerading as a circus freak and working a series of criminal agencies. From this strange hiding place, he comes to love Estrella, the dancer in the circus (played by Joan Crawford), and this arouses his jealousy for Malabar, the strong man, a role handled by Norman Kerry.

The resultant complication, and the astounding sacrifice that marks the climax of the tale are as original as they are audacious. Other film features on the same program include "Why Girls Say No," a genuinely funny Fox Roach comedy; and the latest Fox News events.

Witnesses for the prosecution were J. Maloni of 690 Fourteenth street who testified he saw Thomas hit Gidlof and with Weisgerber pick him up. He said that Gidlof's hands were in his pockets at the time the blow was struck. John LaTorre and Forest Meyers also declared they saw Thomas and Weisgerber pick Gidlof up after the fight.

Arguments were made by the jury members after which the jury was instructed in its duties. On the first ballot, the jury failed to reach an agreement and came for further instructions. After ten minutes, they brought in a verdict of not guilty.

TOMAS FREED OF GUILT ON BATTERY COUNT

A jury in the courtroom of Police Judge C. A. Odell yesterday morning found Lester J. Thomas, local automobile dealer, not guilty of a charge of battery preferred against him by C. H. Gidlof, a former employee.

Following the selection of the jury, testimony of principals and witnesses occupied two hours before the case was ready for a verdict.

Deputy District Attorney Hiram Jacobs prosecuted the charges and the defense was represented by Attorney Will Robinson.

Gidlof was the first to take the stand and gave an account of events leading to his encounter with Thomas in front of the latter's used-car lot on Macdonald avenue and Fourteenth street, September 17. Gidlof declared that without provocative words from him Thomas struck him on the jaw knocking him to the sidewalk and rendering him unconscious. He further claimed that he had his hands in his pockets at the time the blow was struck.

Thomas on the stand accused Gidlof of using profanity and of striking the first blow. A. R. Weisgerber, an employee of Thomas, testified that Gidlof had used provocative profanity and H. Kirby, of Berkeley, who drove with Thomas to the used car lot to look over a car which he later purchased, declared that Gidlof had first struck Thomas. Weisgerber declared that Gidlof had told him he had been drinking, telling him first that he had had three drinks, later two drinks and still later but one drink. This was employed by the defense attorney to impeach the testimony of Gidlof, who denied the drinking charge and was born out by J. A. Johnson, his present employer who was with Gidlof at the time he phoned Thomas previous to the fighting, the phone call concerning commissions for sales which Gidlof claimed were due him.

The jury selected after the defense had used six of its peremptory challenges was composed of H. E. Russell, J. E. Hill, Carl Alexander, V. G. Blake, M. E. Hazelton, Edward Burg, E. P. Vaughn, W. J. Richards, Mrs. G. B. Minger, Herbert Schuler, Mrs. A. Childs and Carl Richards. The last was selected as forman of the jury.

Witnesses for the prosecution were J. Maloni of 690 Fourteenth street who testified he saw Thomas hit Gidlof and with Weisgerber pick him up. He said that Gidlof's hands were in his pockets at the time the blow was struck. John LaTorre and Forest Meyers also declared they saw Thomas and Weisgerber pick Gidlof up after the fight.

Arguments were made by the jury members after which the jury was instructed in its duties. On the first ballot, the jury failed to reach an agreement and came for further instructions. After ten minutes, they brought in a verdict of not guilty.

Ed Sullivan's SPORT WHIRL

MANDELL SEEKING SID TERRIS

Eddie Kane, the pint-sized man from Chicago, is in New York city. Eddie Kane, at present, is the manager of Sammy Mandell, the Rockford, Ill. Italian, holder of the lightweight title, and it is reasonable to suppose that the echo raised as Sid Terris bounced off New York ring floors has something to do with Kane's visit here.

This Kane denies stoutly, maintaining that the customers are interested only in watching the heavyweights this season.

I still insist that the noise made by Terris as he exploded against Martinez, and hit the deck four times against Phil McGraw, the Detroit, has something to do with Kane's presence on the sidewalks of New York.

Sid Terris was by way of being the fly in the ointment for Sammy Mandell once upon a time.

At that time Terris was exceedingly fast upon his legs, and the speed with which Sid could go from here to there was nobody's business. Mandell is by way of being a fast stepper himself, but on at least one occasion, Terris went around Mandell like a cooper going around a barrel.

A sick wife, a busted right hand, and a fractured rib beset Mandell after winning the title from Rocky Kansas at Chicago, and the trio of worries served as legitimate excuses for not meeting Terris.

At present, Terris seems to have sacrificed some of that amazing fleetness in his development of a right-hand punch. At present, too, it appears that the Terris jaw has lost some of its shock-absorbing qualities.

Eddie Kane is in town.

HE DOESN'T COUNT THE GATE

This pint-sized Eddie Kane is by way of being a rarity in the ungentle game of fistfights.

He has all the sentiment that is associated with the race from Erin, and his heart of times rules his head. This is a fine trait, but not always good business.

You may remember that Eddie Kane had a pretty good heavyweight working out of St. Paul, Minn., not so long ago. Instead of viewing this big heavyweight as a strict cash-and-carry proposition, Eddie Kane viewed him as a pal.

He made matches on that basis.

It finally appeared that Dempsey might grant a match for the title to Eddie Kane's fighter. The only hitch was that Dempsey wanted all the money.

"That's all right with me," Kane told his man. "I don't want any dough for my end, but I do want to see you win that title."

And Kane meant it just that way.

So Eddie Kane's heavyweight, who worked out of St. Paul, Minn., met the covetous Mr. Dempsey at Shelby, Mont., one hot day and Tom Gibbons lost on a decision.

It is probably the only time on record that the manager of a heavyweight challenger waived his end of a purse so that the match might be made. It was probably the only time on record that a challenger for the heavyweight title waived his end of the purse, too.

COST HIM $20,000 FOR TITLE

That one instance would have served to set aside this pint-sized fellow from the rest of the mob.

However, he went to bat again and got a load of cinders. Rocky Kansas, the Buffalo bull, was holding the lightweight title. It was synthetic, but Rocky was holding it, and Kane was seeking it for another man of his, Sammy Mandell.

So Eddie Kane and his man, Sammy, scraped up the $50,000 and won the title. It cost them exactly $20,000, for the gate went to $30,000.

Under the circumstances you might pardon even Eddie Kane if he immediately set out on a barnstorming tour with his man, Sammy. Mr. Kane was on the nut for at least $15,000, which was half of the joint bill for the title.

Mandell married, and shortly after his wife became very sick. "There, there, Sammy," soothed Kane. "You just go right away and let that little girl get completely well again. Don't you worry about fighting until she feels better."

It took almost a quarter of a year for that to iron out, and in the meantime Mandell had a busted right hand and a fractured rib to trouble him further.

Then in a bout at Kansas City Mandell's opponent died in the ring.

Through it all Kane kept smiling. Sammy Mandell, like Tommy Gibbons, was not a cash-and-carry proposition with Kane. He was his pal, and Kane treated him as though he were his own son.

SO THEY REWARD HIS MAN, SAMMY

You might think that these things I have noted above would reap a fitting reward for Eddie Kane and that man of his, Sammy.

I note by the papers today that Kane has reaped his reward. The National Boxing Commission, seeking to do something which will place it in the limelight, is in the act of declaring Mandell's title null and void.

However, the pint-sized Kane is not overmuch worried. He is arranging for his man, Sammy, to fight on a benefit card for the kid who died in the same ring at Kansas City.

SOUTHERN CAL. GOLDEN BEARS PLAY SATURDAY

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 27.—University of California invades Southern California Saturday for the first time since 1923, and the gridiron contest in the Coliseum between the Golden Bears and the Thundering Herd will eliminate one team or the other from Conference contention.

Just as the Washington-Washington State contest in Seattle last week definitely settled the question of which was the best team in the north-west, so will the local game determine which of the three California teams will have the best chance of eliminating the Huskies.

The Bears, after a terrible season last year, wherein they failed to win a conference game, have returned to good standing, and Coach Clarence "Nibbs" Price is showing the fans, probably the best machine since the days of the famous Wonder Teams. In Irving Phillips, Jim Dougery, Steve Bancroft and Ellis Thornton, Price has a quartet of ends who promise to cause the Trojan end-running attack more than a little difficulty. Bear fans are boosting Phillips for All-American and his work to date certainly has indicated that he is of proper calibre for All-American honors.

Price used his second-stringers, Bancroft and Thornton, entirely against Mort Kacer, Cowboy Kutsch, George Bozue, and the rest of the Olympic Club stars, and the Winced-O men failed to gain.

The Bears and Trojans stand up about equally in backfield strength. Coach Howard Jones, of the Thundering Herd, will have Don Williams back in shape again for the game, to understudy Captain Morley Drury, along with Howard Elliott, for the quarter-backing job. Williams got in the game against Caltech for five minutes—the first time he had played in three weeks—and scored two touchdowns. Drury did not get into the game at all, Jones preferring to save him for the California tilt. Price, on the other hand, has Lee Elson, Ben Lom and Rice, three sophomore flashes; Paul Perrin, Brick Marcus, Ralph Dougery, Paul Clymer, Jim Cockburn and Harry Bruno, all of whom are already well known.

Trojan business managers are predicting a sold-out Coliseum for the tilt. Only $800 of the $3000 seats are still on sale.

HEENEY WINS DECISION IN 10th ROUND

DETROIT, Oct. 26.—Barrel-chested Oak ribbed Tom Heenev fought for his pugilistic future in the heavyweight ranks of America here tonight and won fairly snoring.

He beat the rubbery Johnny Risko of Cleveland in 10 blazing rounds with some sixteen thousand citizens mingling their cheers and boos as Referee McClelland lifted the right arm of the man from New Zealand at the finish.

Risko weighed 187 and Heenev 196 and one-half pounds.

TROJAN, BEAR FROSH DEEMED EQUAL RIVALS

BERKELEY, Oct. 26.—Stepping from the role of curtain raiser the University of California's undefeated freshman team will have the giant California Memorial Stadium to itself next Saturday when it meets the University of Southern California freshmen.

The teams are of rather even quality and it is safe to say that the championship of California freshmen teams will be decided at the encounter, inasmuch as the Stanford freshmen have already bowed to the southerners.

Coach Brick Mitchell's men have defeated both the Santa Clara and St. Mary's freshmen while these teams in turn rapped the Cardinal Babes. The Southern California team has not lost a game, but only their contest with Stanford affords a basis of comparison.

Their season record is as follows:

S. C. Freshmen 6, Pasadena Junior College 0.
S. C. Freshmen 28, Burbank High School 0.
S. C. Freshmen 15, S. C. Spartans 6.
S. C. Freshmen 22, Stanford Freshmen 13.

The California freshmen have a more imposing record as they have met no high school teams. Their record:

Calif. Freshmen 18, Santa Clara Freshmen 8.
Calif. Freshmen 26, L. A. All-Stars 0.

Calif. Fresh 11, St. Mary's Freshmen 7.
Calif. Freshmen 33, Marin Junior College 0.

Calif. Freshmen 26, 250th Coast Artillery 12.
Calif. Freshmen 21, Sacramento Junior College 0.

Clarence Garrity, star full-back, who has been out with an injured ankle, is in shape the Bear Babes will be able to present their strongest line-up. Joel Coffield, half, is back and all other members of the squad are in shape.

The Southern California freshmen are handicapped somewhat by the loss of Marshall Duffield, quarterback, who sustained a broken leg in practice.

SANTA PAULA—Southern California Edison company will build 75,000 garage.

AIRPLANES TO CONTINUE HUNT FOR LOST TRIO

MARTINEZ, Oct. 26.—An airplane from the Oakland airport in addition to the one impressed into service this afternoon will continue search tomorrow for the two men and a boy, missing since Saturday night, when they left Pittsburg in a launch for a hunting trip in the Suisun marsh districts.

MISSING 75 HOURS
Relatives of the missing trio appealed to the sheriff's office for aid, and an intensive search has been launched. The party is overdue more than 75 hours. The missing persons are: ANTONIO BELLECI, 22, Valona resident and an employee of the Union Oil Company at Oleum, married.

AUGUST RE, 23, married, employee of H. H. Zuppan's crockery store.
FRANCIS NEMANICH, 14, son of Michael Nemanich of Crockett. Request for the search for the missing persons was made by Tony Dowdello, Crockett automobile dealer and a brother-in-law of Re, and C. Taccone of Crockett, brother-in-law of Belleci.

FEAR EXPLOSION
Relatives of the men and boy and authorities are at a loss to explain the failure of the party to return. Their boat is a staunch craft and they towed a skiff. If the launch grounded it is believed the men would have abandoned it and returned in the skiff for they were scheduled to go to work Monday morning. Possibility of an explosion having occurred has been advanced as one theory of accident.

Possibility of the craft having been struck by a river steamer during the night is also being considered.

The last the men obtained is owned by Peter Tortini of Pittsburg. With the Nemanich boy they left Pittsburg at 10 p. m. Saturday night after advising their relatives that they would return Sunday night. When 48 hours elapsed after the hour of the scheduled return the plea for aid in a search for them was made.

NO TRACE
All boats arriving here and at Pittsburg are being queried for word of the missing launch and its occupants but so far not a trace of them has been secured.

This morning a searching party consisting of Deputy Sheriff Ralph Harrison, Grazio Lucido of Martinez, C. Taccone, and J. Nemanich of Crockett, the latter a brother of the missing boy and L. Triglia, left Martinez for the Suisun marshes. Chief of Police Charles Scudero of Pittsburg is directing a crew operating out of Pittsburg.

Dowdello proposed to obtain a plane at Richmond to fly over the wide expanse of marsh territory.

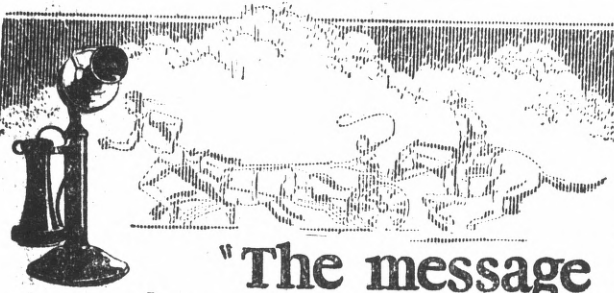

Rainy and cloudy weather this morning, with consequent poor visibility, however, delayed the plans for the air observation.

Apathy Gives Way To Great Enthusiasm For Water Bonds

The nine East Bay cities must emulate the example long since set by forward-looking communities the country over in owning their own water systems. It was pointed out by the Citizens' Committee in charge of the water bond distribution campaign, which appealed for a heavy vote at next Tuesday's election.

Fred N. Morcom, General Chairman of the Committee, showed that the principal cities of the United States have long since abandoned the plan of buying water from private corporations and thereby paying big dividends into private pockets and have adopted the successful plan of owning and distributing their water supply, thereby paying their water bills to themselves.

He said that an analysis of cities throughout the United States shows that the East Bay cities and San Francisco are the only two large communities left in the country which still operate under the system of private ownership as regards to water.

"We now have an opportunity," said Morcom, "to place ourselves among the progressive cities of the country in the matter of municipal ownership. Not one city having tried municipal ownership of water has ever gone back to private ownership. Not one city has found the plan unsatisfactory or unsuccessful. There is an added reason for our passing the bonds next Tuesday inasmuch as we have already committed ourselves to municipal ownership by organizing the East Bay Municipal District and by voting for the $39,000,000 Mokelumne bonds, the profits from which are now being used to construct a municipally owned water supply system. Having taken these two steps and failing to take the third step next Tuesday would leave us midway on the road to municipal ownership with a heavy financial burden to carry and with none of the benefits that we should enjoy."

Apathy is giving way to enthusiasm and all signs point to an overwhelming vote in favor of the bonds, committee leaders declared. Workers in every district are making extra efforts to reach the largest possible number of people during the remaining days of the campaign and to explain the purpose underlying the bond issue. These district leaders said that as rapidly as the matter is explained voters favor it and promise their assistance. Many who were opposed to the bond issue for the Mokelumne works have changed their attitude and lined up with the proponents on the ground that the acquisition system is an absolutely logical and necessary step in the municipal ownership program in view of what has gone before.

Further support by union labor was seen in the endorsement of the project yesterday by the Carpenter's Union No. 892. This follows the endorsement of the Central Labor Council and many individual unions.

Many meetings are to be held in all parts of the District during the next few days. One of agency hospital. Judge Roth was removed to the Stockton hospital Monday he felt somewhat recovered from his experience and expressed a wish to return to his home here. His son, Walter, of Walnut Creek, prevailed upon him to remain in the hospital for ten days as it was believed that he would recover within that time. His condition was not believed to be serious at first. But because of his age and the severity of his injuries he was unable to withstand the shock.

JUSTICE FOR 17 YEARS

Justice of the Peace John Roth served the Richmond township in office the past 17 years and would have celebrated his eighty-first birthday on December 17. He was born in the little village of Indiana, Penn., December 17, 1846. At the age of 19 years he emigrated from New York, at the close of the Civil War for San Francisco, crossing the Isthmus of Panama on the Pacific railroad.

Judge Roth continued to Volocounty after arriving in San Francisco and followed farming for 11 years. He married Mrs. Roth January 1, 1877 in Volocounty and the two immediately left for Tulare county where he farmed a vast acreage. He served as legislator from Tulare, Kern and Inyo counties for one term.

Following a series of droughts which wiped out the crops, he came to Richmond in a horse and wagon making the trip in 11 days. He started life anew here with only a twenty dollar gold piece as his capital.

With his team, he earned a living here for more than four years and then for twenty months worked as a laborer for the Santa Fe railroad.

In the general elections of 1904, Roth was elected justice of the peace for the first term, which position he held until his death. He was last re-elected for a four-year term in November 1926.

Justice and Mrs. Roth went to Los Angeles last New Year's day to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding with their family. In addition to his wife,
